ALLEN WALKER HELD OVER TO GRAND JURY

Negro Charged With Perjury at Carr Inquest Faces Term of Several Years in Penitentiary

Allen Walker, the colored porter employe at George H. Farris' grocery who was arrested charged with perjury, immediately after the coroner's inquest in the Anderson Carr case last week, was held over to await the next grand jury by County Judge James P. Bailey, at his examining trial last Thursday. His bond was fixed at $50, which has not yet been given and he will probably remain in jail until his case is called.

The testimony of a number of witnesses at the coroner's inquest over the body of Carr's wife, showed that Walker was seen to enter Carr's place about five o'clock the Sunday afternoon of the killing; to go out and remain about thirty minutes and then to enter again. Practically all of this he denied in his testimony, and as a result a warrant, charging him with perjury was sworn out.

Those who have talked to Walker say that it was fear of Carr, which prompted him to give the testimony he did when he was put on the stand. He now admits, it is said, that he went into Carr's place after the murder, but denies that Carr told him anything of the murder of his wife, or that he saw any signs of a murder. He says, it is reported, that Carr seemed very nervous and threatened to kill "anyone who turned him up," or any officers who came, or words to that effect, Walker says it is claimed however, that Carr said nothing to him of the murder, and that he knew nothing of it.

The officers, believe, however that Walker is not inclined to tell all he knows of the dreadful occurrence. There is a sentiment in some quarters, it is understood, to go easy on the negro if he is willing to "come across" and make a clean breast of all he knows. Otherwise he faces a penitentiary sentence of two or three years.

REPUBLICANS BEGIN FIGHTING IN PULASKI

Taft and Roosevelt Men Line Up For Contest To Control County's Rights.

Somerset, Ky., March 9.—The Roosevelt-Taft fight is certainly leaping rapidly into the "red-hot" stage in Pulaski county, and the past three days has been the situation jump from one or ordinary activity right into the seething point, and every indication now points to the "fur-flying" pace from this time on until the county convention is held on April 6 to select delegates to the district and State convention.

Tuesday the Taft forces unlimbered their biggest gun and dropped a ten inch shell into the Roosevelt camp by the announcement of Judge O. H. Waddle, of this place, as a candidate for delegate from the 11th district to the national convention in which announcement he paid his respects to Roosevelt in a very certain and not very complimentary manner.

Wednesday the Taft crowd was given just as great a shock when the Roosevelt managers hurled a bomb into their camp in the public announcement of Judge B. J. Rethrum of this place, that he was a candidate for delegate from the Eleventh district to the national convention and in which announcement he takes occasion to laud the ex-President in a very high manner and express himself quite plainly with reference to President Taft. Judge Rethrum is the present Circuit Judge of this judicial district, composed of Pulaski, Rockcastle, Wayne and Clinton counties.

In this announcement the lines of battle are squarely drawn, and there is no denying the fact that it will be a battle royal and one which has not been seen here since the celebrated fight between Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter and D. C. Edwards for congressional nomination—and, strange to say, Hunter has charge of Taft's fight in the Eleventh, while his erstwhile adversary, Edwards, is in charge of Roosevelt's fight in this district.

Lined up for Roosevelt is former Collector of Internal Revenue J. Sherman Cooper, probably one of the shrewdest politicians in Eastern Kentucky, and with him is Circuit Judge Rethrum, Commonwealth's Attorney Jarvis, County Judge R. C. Tartar, Sheriff J. M. Weddle, County Clerk C. M. Langdon, Judge William Catron, United States Commissioner E. T. Wesley and numerous other local political workers, while doing battle for Taft will be found Judge O. H. Waddle, County Attorney R. W. Waddle, Postmaster, T. M. Scott who is a nephew of Senator W. O. Bradley, United States District Attorney Edwin P. Morrow, who is also a nephew of Senator Bradley, brother-in-law of Senator Bradley, United States Superintendent of Public Schools, Wesley J. Barnes and various other knowing ones in the political game. Judge R. C. Tartar, who was probably the first Republican of any note here to announce for Roosevelt, is chairman of the County Committee and will preside at the county convention when it meets to organize.

The first Roosevelt Club of women voters, so far as is known in the United States, has formed at Sunnyside, Washington. A full corps of officers was selected and a campaign in behalf of the Colonel's candidacy decided upon.

FAIR DATES CHOSEN

At a meeting of several fair secretaries in Danville last week the date for the Harrodsburg Fair was fixed for July 30, 31 and August 1 and 2, and Danville for August 7, 8 and 9, so that neither will conflict with the great K. P. fair at Stanford August 21, 22 and 23. It is said, that one of the attractions billed for Harrodsburg this year is a flying machine which will make daily ascensions and the directors will in turn take a spin through the elements with the bird man.

The electric light will have 1,200 light capacity, and the ice and cold storage, four tons. There will also be installed this fall a steam heating plant, in which the main building will be heated by a furnace. Those who go to this popular watering place will in the future be treated for rheumatism and other diseases by electricity. The management will spend in the neighborhood of $10,000 on improvements. A VALUABLE SUGGESTION

Important to Everyone

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

During the winter months, especially, when we live an indoor life, the kidneys should receive some assistance when needed as we take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than Nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, inability to hold urine, smarting or burning brick-dust or sediment, salivary complexion, rheumatism may be weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

An herbal medicine containing no minerals or opiates has the most healing influence. An ideal herbal compound that has most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention the Stanford Interior Journal. For sale by all drug stores.

The Ohio Constitutional convention by a vote of 76 to 33 adopted a proposal to extend full suffrage to women.

Do you know that of all the minor ailments, colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the cold itself that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that it often leads to. Most of these are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and constipation are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cure your cold while you can? For sale by G. L. Penny.

If you have trouble in getting rid of your cold you may know that you are not treating it properly. There is no reason why a cold should hang on for weeks and it will not if you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by G. L. Penny.

TORN UP TROUSERS TO KEEP FROM GOING TO PEN.

But Ruse of Buena Vista Compton Failed to Work—Prisoners Taken Over By Sheriff

Buena Vista Compton, the young Moreland desperado, was taken to the state penitentiary at Frankfort last Thursday by Sheriff McCarty to spend the remainder of his life, upon the third conviction. However the officer did not get him to the train without some trouble, for when Mr. McCarty went to the jail after him, Compton refused to don a pair of trousers to wear to Frankfort. Investigation revealed the fact that during the night he had torn the only pair of trousers he possessed into shreds, and there were really no pants for him to wear.

Jailer Dink Farmer was about to adopt summary measures to force Compton to put on a pair of trousers, when his son Alfred came to the prisoner's rescue, and gave him an old pair to wear. Compton, seeing that he was "up against it" put the breeches on and departed with the sheriff.

John Harris Rout, known as "Possum," who was sent up for life for killing Clay Drye, was also taken over to Frankfort, at the same time.

Sheriff McCarty took Jesse Cole to the Reform School, on the same trip. This is the 18-year-old lad who broke into a trunk at the Veranda Hotel, and was convicted in the circuit court. He will stay at the House of Reform until he is 21 years of age.

MAT REYNOLDS

Mat Reynolds was born the year of 1850, and died at his home near Kingsville on Green river, Feb. 28, 1912, lacking but a few days of being 63 years of age. The most of his life was spent in and near Waynesburg, where he was united in marriage with Miss Charity Caldwell, the daughter of the highly respected late Henry Caldwell, of that place. To this union were born three sons, Marshall and Marion of Arkansas, and William, of Pulaski.

His first wife died in 1894 and shortly after this he was married to Mrs. Isaphine Flint, of this county, who still survives him. Besides his wife and three sons, he is survived by one brother, James Reynolds of Tennessee and one sister Mrs. Lavene Moser, of this county.

In his early manhood he joined the Baptist church at Waynesburg and since that he has loved his church and did all man could do toward the Kingdom of God.

Nothing can be said against his life or character, for he was loyal as a citizen, ever supporting the principles of civic righteousness, always the highest moral standards, and he never lost an opportunity of doing good to all.

On the beautiful afternoon while the sun was shedding her gentle rays upon us, he was laid to rest in the old Double Springs cemetery, now known as the Waynesburg cemetery and here he will sleep, until the judgment day. Truly a good man has gone. May God comfort and abide with the loved ones who remain.

While it is sad to part, yet we believe that He, who placed us here, knows best when to take us away, hence we bow in submission to His will and say good bye. WALTER MOSER.

DICK SCUDDER IN FRONT RANK OF SADDLE HORSE MEN

Offered to Pay $2,500 a Year For 3 Years For Rex Peavine, But Failed to Get the Great Sire.

Observer, in the Farmers Home Journal, says: $10,000 for a saddle horse. This is the price that Judge I. H. Thurman, of Springfield, Ky., offered for the high class stallion, Rex Peavine, recently.

The owner James S. Hockaday refused it stating that the horse had been given him by his father, who desired the sire of Edna May to be kept in the family and that he would comply with his father's request.

An offer to lease the stallion for three years at $2,500 per year was also turned down.

The latter offer was made by Dick Scudder, of McKinney, who has done much towards elevating the stallion to his present high position as a saddle horse sire.

Dick Scudder is certainly right in the front rank of the high class saddle horse breeders of the state.
